

Please do not permit the rights of citizens to be further eroded. We no longer watch television. Fortunately there is still some variety among newspapers in this area. Regardless, we read them with great concern for corporate management of the news. Radio has become mostly limited to public and Pacifica stations. Are we to be limited to using the internet to search for foreign media that do not limit themselves to news massaged to reflect corporate views. Please continue to protect us from the corporations.